Cardiff D. Hall – MY OPUS

My WHY

My Why is to utilize the gifts God has given me to elevate myself and others to heights of achievement while purposefully showing my daughter, that anything is possible with clarity and desire.

I Have A DREAM = Overarching Vision

Today I'm sitting at my kitchen table eating breakfast with my wife and daughter enjoying a cup of great Mexican coffee in my condo in Playa La Ropa, overlooking the ocean.

I take a deep breath in, and I rewind in my mind how did I get here and am thankful for the push I received from my heavenly father to trust. The verse which powers me is Joshua 1:9 "Be strong and courageous do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord Your God will be with you wherever you go."

I am a speaker, author and executive coach to several large consumer good company executives. I have multiple streams of income from speaking, books, online products, training products, one on one executive coaching and real estate investments.

I am highly sought after to deliver key note talks and trainings to sales organizations and enjoy that my wife and daughter accompany me on my trips when possible. I am the CEO of a non-profit adoption foundation which help families defray the cost of adoption and my family is on the board. We have a successful yearly black tie gala to raise funds for Christian families to adopt children in the US.

My heart and health are in excellent condition and my Dr. continues to ask me if I'm 30 and continue to response, "Yes I AM!" I'm in the best shape of my life thanks to my wife's healthy cooking and my continued workout routine.

I do not have financial worries about my daughter's college or wedding expense, given its funded. My daughter keeps asking me if I will be alive for her wedding and I respond "YES, I will be walking you down the aisle!"

I have a healthy and vibrant relationship with my wife and often people ask us if we are newlyweds and of course I say YES and then tell them the number of years we have been married.

I have a team of amazing individuals who support the business and keep the business running smoothly.

I have a growing and strong connection to my creator God and feel the embrace of his arms on a consistent basis.

I give to my church and will often purchase dinner for families or donate surprisingly to a family and do not expect anything in return.

I am involved in my daughter's life and take the time away from work to attend her activities and be there for her when she calls.

I am a board member for another non-profit organization.

I laugh much, love much and generate the type of energy which is felt in every room which is shared to audiences around the world.

Due to the opportunities in the business my family enjoys connecting and relaxing in the various countries and islands visited.

I help individuals become their dynamic best self and been a witness to see their achievements and helped sales organizations level up, to achieve results many said were not possible.

I have a strong mindset, my belief and energy power me along and take me to new heights.

I take another sip of coffee and look out to view the wonderful blue ocean, breathe in to smell the ocean air and look into the eyes of the two special women who have been there for me.
