

Kelly Renee - OPUS

My BIG DREAM/Overarching Vision-I have a dream of, a dream of freedom! I dream of being completely free from the past that shackles me to this place, to this mindset of “not enough”. Free, from the ghosts of childhood and life, which haunt me. I have a dream that God will guide me to the place where I fully surrender to His love. I dream of being the best mom I can, the mom my mom wasn't. For the next nine years my main focus is my children. They grow quickly and I can't get the time with them back! I dream of working from home full-time so that I can give my children my all. I dream of no longer being overwhelmed and going in twenty directions every day. I dream of helping others to overcome these same strongholds and negative mindsets that held me back for so long. I dream of helping them escape the clenches of the past and their mindsets, to transform to a new life that God has waiting for them. I have a dream of partnering with people to help them completely transform their lives. I dream of motivating and encouraging people to be the BEST (people) they can be. I dream of helping people do more, be more and have more. I dream of helping people get past the hurts, negativity and mindsets that bind their confidence and have them living in fear. Living in fear is not living. It is existing. I help people “get real” and get past the excuses that are holding them back in life. I dream of helping others dream or refocus on lost dreams or stolen dreams. (“People who have lost their way have lost their why”- Michael Hyatt). I dream of helping people discover their why. I dream of guiding individuals through a personal examination of their life. I help people see how they have developed and own certain mindsets and offer guidance to change those mindsets. I will be alongside to help individuals reach deep within self to discover what God breathed into them from the beginning. I dream of impacting people with hope through coaching and speaking. I dream of being on stage speaking to audiences in a way that motivates and empowers them for life, not just the moment. I dream of being free from my past and freeing others from the strongholds of their past. Learn from our pasts, but not be consumed or defined by the past. I dream of guiding people to be aware of their mindsets, how they developed them, and if they react or respond to situations. I have dreamed for years of writing books. Books to help people relate, not feel alone and know that they can overcome! Through coaching, speaking and writing, I dream of moving people from the struggles of life to successful significance in life. Leading people to God's promise of purpose! He has a plan for each of us. We must partner with him to discover it! (For I know the plans I have for you says the Lord, plans for good and not for evil, plans to prosper you and give you a hope and a future- Jeremiah 29:11)
